Vale May Fox

The Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club of NSW has lost one of its most long standing members with the passing of Karen Paul's mother May Fox at the great age of 94. Many members will have known May at both all breed and Cavalier shows.

The first time May showed a dog at a dog show was at the NSW Club's 10th Anniversary show in 1978 judged by Lady Forwood. A very nervous May got through the table examination but managed to trip over her dog on the last leg of the triangle.

May's first champion was Ch Gaycrest Ambassador who was born in 1979. The tricolour dog, later Champion, Laydykey Treasure (UK) arrived in 1985.

All the Leisureview dogs were owned in partnership by May and Karen and have been well known and highly successful for many years. May always had strong ideas about which puppies to keep when they had a litter – sometimes not Karen's first choice!

Both May and Patsy Montford ran the Club's Bring and Buy stall for many years and in pre internet days, when Cavalier themed items were not so easy to find, they were regularly inundated with eager buyers.

For those of us who have known May for a great part of our time in dogs, she will be much missed. Our condolences to Karen and her family.

Bushfire Legacy

The Australian bushfires of 2019-2020 have significantly impacted many communities across Australia, and though we are a small club, we have not been without our scares, with many members forced to evacuate their homes.

Over the pond in the UK Barry Medford, (owner of Westgate Giftware) was on a well deserved holiday away from his busy business and saw the Australian Bushfire tragedy on the television.

He was stunned at the fires and great loss of our wildlife. He thought that with all the business the Australians have given him over the years that it was his turn to help out.

Barry has purchased some Koalas that were auctioned off and raffled at the CKCS Club shows he attended recently.

His first raffle winner was Sue Mangham at the Northern Cavalier Club, also held on the day was a loose change bucket, which raised 124.GB Pound. Money generously donated on the day by the Committee, Judges, exhibitors and spectators. This will was added to the total of the first auction.

Norma Inglis was also working hard alongside Barry and has organised the first on-line silent auction. This auction raised 1,000 GB Pound. Which in turn converted to $1,839.95.AU$. .. WOW!!

All the money will be donated to the Koala Hospital at Port Macquarie.

I think you will have to agree that our Cavalier lovers over "The Pond" have supported Barry and given so generously to help our beautiful Koalas get the treatment they require. Also future breeding programs and other assistance they need.

I am amazed that there is such a sympathetic awareness of the disaster that these horrid fires have caused to our beautiful country and wildlife.

The second silent auction finished on Sunday 2.2.2020. There have been donations from Cavalier lovers offering collectors items and a young 7 y/o boy and his sister gave their teddy's towards the auction, plus Barry donated some of his collectors pieces as well.

The donations from the 2nd Auction will go to the Humane Society's Wildlife Emergency Response Fund. Total funds will be publicised when known,

For any UK readers who read this and have donated in any way I would like to humbly Thank You on behalf of all Australians for your very generous donations.

"The Koala Hospital established in 1973 is an activity of the Koala Conservation Australia Incorporated - a Not-for-Profit Organisation which is recognised world-wide as a peak body which participates in forums for debate on significant policy issues and plays a significant leadership role in research, providing advice and information to Universities and Governments regulating change."

"The Koala Hospital is a licenced Wildlife Rehabilitation Facility carrying out on-site procedures. All procedures and treatments are done at the Koala Hospital except for major surgeries and X rays which are undertaken at the Port Macquarie Veterinary Hospital. Being a research/study centre it not only has a strong affiliation with University Sydney, University Technology Queensland and the Australian Museum, but also networks with many institutions, zoos, wildlife researchers, wildlife veterinarians and numerous wildlife rehabilitation groups worldwide."

MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

JANUARY 1973

The year 1972 ended with a blaze of glory for the breed, as, on the final night of the Pal International the Club entry in the Dog Lover's Quest was placed second in the category "Best Dog for the Job" and third overall. From an entry of twenty breeds we were only topped by the Dalmations (who took out two firsts). The prizemoney of $25 for each placing was paid in full into club funds. This was due entirely to the generosity of our Treasurer Mrs Gorman and committeeman Mr Woods, who shared the costs of entry fee and costume hire. Mrs Gorman organised everything and Mr Woods very gamely donned wig and satin pants to play the part of King Charles, and with the help of Mrs Val Carter as a petite Nell Gwyn the whole effect was spectacular to say the least. The nine Cavaliers (including representatives of each colour) seemed to know it was a gala occassion and fortunately did not put a foot wrong. Our thanks to Kim Hunt, Val Carter, Shirley Leach and the Blackalls for supplying the dogs, and of course, words cannot express our thanks to Nell Gorman and Alan Woods.

Another person who is due to be thanked is Miss Margaret MacRae who has taken over the typing of the master carbons for the newsletters. As this will save the club about $25 a year, it is a job which should not go unnoticed. I'm sure we also extend our heartiest felicitations to Margaret as she has recently announced her engagement and plans to marry on the Australia Day weekend.

Malvern Lodge,
West Hoxton.

Dear Ace,

I hope your trip was enjoyable, and that you have settled down in your new home. I know you will be a good boy for your new owner, no puddles, and don't bite the visitors. When you make your Debut in the New Zealand Showring, make your father, Joker, proud of you and remember to keep your chin up at all times. Then "Best Royal Flush" will be a name to contend with.

Have a good Christmas, but watch your table manners.

Aunty Tansy, Grandfather Jester and Cousin Pageboy send their love, as of course does your father.

Write to me soon and remember to protect Miep at all times.

Your loving Mother,
Garaig Go Gay.
